STEP 3: BEFORE YOU RECEIVE RIAC ADVICE:

- If your client is subject to an order of protection, immediately review the RIAC Advisory on Domestic OP's.
- If there is an ICE detainer / your client is likely to be arrested by ICE (whether in Court, upon release from Jail or at home) immediately review the RIAC Advisory on steps to take.
- DO NOT accept any plea OR enter any diversion program (even a seemingly amazing one, including an up-front plea which will be vacated). See the RIAC advisory on diversion and up front pleas.
- DO NOT advise your client accept an ACD (unless you have first reviewed the RIAC ACD advisory with your client).
- DO NOT use a court interpreter outside of Court: that conversation is not privileged! You have access to telephonic interpretation. See, the RIAC advisory on interpretation / contact RIAC directly if you need assistance).
- DO NOT ask your client to contact RIAC directly – we are your legal expert, not your client's immigration attorney.
- Advise your client of their right TO REFUSE TO SPEAK WITH ICE, even just to confirm their name. See, "Know Your Rights with ICE" flyers in English and Spanish (contact us for additional languages).
